

Aquaculture Farm Laborer

HOURS: Full Time

LOCATION: Icy Waters Ltd, Whitehorse, Yukon, Canada

START DATES: December 1, 2018 or until filled

ENTRY WAGE: $14 per hour – on site accommodation may be available

Icy Waters Ltd. is an aquaculture company dedicated to the development, growth, processing, and sale of premium Arctic Charr and “Yukon Gold” Arctic Charr ova. The 25 + year old Canadian company believes that all employees be directly involved in production from “egg to plate”.

We are seeking applicants for employment as an Aquaculture Farm Laborer. Work will involve all areas of the farm including brood and ova production, hatchery and tank farm grow out, processing fish in the plant

Highlighted Responsibilities:

- Fish husbandry
- Pick and package eggs
- Daily chores of fish handling, feeding and monitoring the fish stocks
- Water quality monitoring
- Record keeping
- Comply with all regulatory, safety and company procedures
- May be required to participate in after hours alarm rotation
- Maintain a clean work area

The Qualities and Skills preferred include:

- Work effectively in a fast-paced environment, sometimes under time constraints
- Physically fit to stand, lift, carry, and to do repetitive work in cold, wet environment, both indoors and outdoors
- Good communication and interpersonal skills
- Ability to communicate in English
- Comfortable entering data on a computer data base
- Self-starter - able to work independently
- Ability to work efficiently at repetitive tasks
- Ability to lift and carry 50 lbs and do physical tasks
- Ability to work indoors and outdoors
- Attention to detail
- Attention to cleanliness
- Available to work various schedules weekdays and weekends
- Reliable transportation to report to work
- Proof of ability to work in Canada

Candidate must be able to provide a satisfactory security and criminal record check for the past five years within the first two weeks of hire.

SEND RESUME TO: admin@icywaters.com – Re: Aquaculture Farm Laborer 2018