

Aquaculture Technician

HOURS: Full Time

LOCATION: Icy Waters Ltd, Whitehorse, Yukon, Canada

START DATES: December 1, 2018 or until filled

ENTRY WAGE: $14 to $15 per hour – on site accommodation may be available

Icy Waters Ltd. is an aquaculture company dedicated to the development, growth, processing, and sale of premium Arctic Charr and “Yukon Gold” Arctic Charr ova. The 25 + year old Canadian company believes that all employees be directly involved in production from “egg to plate”.

We are seeking applicants for full time permanent employment as an Aquaculture Technician. Work will involve all areas of the farm including brood and ova production, hatchery and tank farm grow out, processing fish in the plant

Highlighted Responsibilities:

- Fish husbandry
- Pick and package eggs
- Daily chores of fish handling, feeding and monitoring the fish stocks
- Water quality monitoring
- Record keeping
- Comply with all regulatory, safety and company procedures
- Participate in after hours alarm rotation
- Maintain a clean work area

The Qualities and Skills preferred include:

- Aquaculture, farming, science background, or experience.
- Work effectively in a fast-paced environment, sometimes under time constraints
- Physically fit to stand, lift, carry, and to do repetitive work in cold, wet environment, both indoors and outdoors.
- Good communication and interpersonal skills
- Ability to communicate in English
- Computer experience with Excel, Word and email and with Data Base
- Self-starter - able to work independently
- Ability to work efficiently at repetitive tasks
- Attention to detail
- Attention to cleanliness
- Valid Driver's license or ability to obtain a Valid Driver license
- Proof of ability to work in Canada

Candidate must be able to provide a satisfactory security and criminal record check for the past five years within the first two weeks of hire.

SEND RESUME TO: admin@icywaters.com – Re: Aquaculture Technician 2018